Viva! Means Life and You Can Add Life to Someone's Days

Viva! 2010 – Goes Polynesian is a very special fundraising event benefiting patients and families who face the challenges of life-limiting illness and loss. Viva! 2010 – Goes Polynesian is a celebration featuring silent and live auctions, delicious Polynesian cuisine, a live band, dancing, and plenty of fun! This once-a-year experience is happening on April 10 at 5:30 p.m. at the Rembert Farm in Alachua, Florida. Dress is Tropical Casual – leave your tux and heels at home!

As your community-based, not-for-profit hospice, we are committed to providing our programs and services regardless of a person's ability to pay. All proceeds from Viva! 2010– Goes Polynesian stay in the community and help support the many programs and services offered by Haven Hospice. For example, Healing Hearts provides supportive counseling for those who have experienced loss of any kind, and the Pegasus Program provides for the special needs of children and teens facing life-limiting illness and loss.

Thank you for your support for Viva! 2010– Goes Polynesian. Tickets for this year's event are $150 per person.
